In Memorium

Richard was a member of homeroom 209; however, he spent little time there since he was a library aid.

During the 1967-1968 school year, Richard Bair was the historian of Miss Rathje's Library Club.

Richard C. Bair

GALATIANS 6:9--"And let us not be weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap." Because Richard Bair lived up to this verse, the Library Club underlined these words in the white Bible they purchased for his family. As the club's historian, Richard worked in the library after school and participated in all the club's activities. Completing 72 hours of service for each award, Richard received four library pins in three years. Richard lived with his parents and his younger brother Leon on Main Street in Reamstown. Although he wasn't old enough to receive the fireman's badge, the Reamstown Fire Company awarded it to him, because he had worked so hard to complete the requirements. At the age of sixteen, Richard died in the Ephrata Hospital after a period of severe illness.

Mr. Chester Sweigart

Chester B. Sweigart dedicated thirty-one years of his life to education. During the past nine years at Cocalico, he inspired and enriched the lives of students, staff, and friends. As a gracious leader and wise counselor, the distinguished English teacher served as Newspaper advisor and dedicated himself to youth and their interests. Mr. Sweigart's knowledge of music, drama, and the Japanese language added a fascinating touch to the daily routine of his students. Because of his popularity, the class of 1965 dedicated the KO-KA-LE-KO to Mr. Sweigart.

His honest attempt to educate the more sensitive part of the person has awakened us to an important part of life which is often overlooked in American education. Having had Chester Sweigart as a teacher has made us all a little prouder in values.

Mr. Sweigart, the senior member of the English department, confers with fellow teachers, Mrs. Boggs and Mr. Brensinger.

Mr. Sweigart was a teacher in the Language Arts department in the 1966-67 school year along with Mr. Martzall and Mr. Peters.

"A man has achieved success if he has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; if he has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; if he has filled his niche and accomplished his task; if he has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; if he has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; if he has always given the best he had." Rev. Minnich's life was an inspiration to those of us who knew him; his memory will be a benediction.

Rev. Minnich consults with Mr. Behrendt.

Reverend Harold Minnich

Rev. Minnich served on the '67-'68 school board.

Ruby Pannebecker is congratulated by Rev. Minnich.

Rev. H. Minnich, Rev. M. Smith and Rev. D. Hauser spoke during Baccalaureate at the 1966 Graduation.

With forty-four Varsity players and enough boys to field a Junior Varsity team, this year's football squad has the largest membership in recent years. The players endured exhausting practices during summer vacation and after school, and with the help of his assistants, Mr. Birchill, Mr. Hall, Mr. Rabuck, Mr. Mentzer, and Mr. Campbell. Head Coach Gene Duck built this year's team around five returning starters. The faithful Eagle fans who loyally supported our team are to be commended. Even though inexperience was evident to the fans throughout the season, and the supporters suffered many heartbreaking moments, they could never feel as badly about each loss as the boys themselves did.

Cocalico's Varsity hockey team closed the 1968 season with a record of four wins and three losses. With their victories, the girls climbed from seventh place last year to third place during the 1968-69 season. The girls attributed their successes to increased team spirit, hard work, cooperation, and respect for each other. By attending Millersville's hockey camp during the summer, the girls improved their stick work and compared themselves to the other hockey players from the county who participated in the camp. Assisted by Miss Kautz, Mrs. Campbell divided the girls into three teams: Varsity coached by Mrs. Campbell, Junior Varsity coached by Miss Kautz, and Freshmen coached by Miss Schwebel, a student teacher who voluntarily assisted the hockey team.

Under the leadership of President Jay Althouse, student council has successfully accomplished many new projects during the school year in addition to its ordinary schedule of events--Homecoming Day and Dance, Parents' Day for football, basketball, and wrestling, Valentine Dance, Color Day, Dress-Up Day, Election Assembly, and the Student-Faculty Basketball Game. For the first time, the council sponsored a school festival, which included a chicken barbeque, games of skill, food concessions, and a Jr.-Sr. High Band Concert. The proceeds were contributed to establish two Foreign Exchange Student Programs during the same year--one involving a two-way exchange with a Latin American country for three months, and the other involving the reception of a European student for one year. This year, Jay converted the Faculty Tea to a student-teacher panel, which discussed any problems or new ideas concerning the student body. Jay was an excellent leader who demonstrated his eagerness to learn and co-operate with his teachers in order to take full advantage of his educational years. As a dependable president, Jay led student council through a successful 68-69 school year.

Count Mountjoy and Duchess Gloriana discuss the situation in New York.

THE MOUSE THAT ROARED concerned the efforts of Duchess Gloriana and the political leaders, David Benter and Count Mountjoy to make their country self-sustaining. They decide the only expedient is to invade New York, suffer defeat and wait for financial aid from the Americans. To insure their loss, the devious duo convince Gloriana to send Tully Bascom and an army of bowmen to New York.

Tully and his six men arrive in New York, capture an army general, his daughters and a physicist who developed the all-powerful Q bomb, and return victoriously to Grand Fenwick. Their success forces Grand Fenwick to rehabilitate the U. S. The wily Professor Kokintz re-arms the bomb and Gloriana announces her marriage to Tully Bascom.

In observation of Education Week, the Faculty presented a modified "Laugh In." The students first performed their version of "If I hadn't been in F.T.A.", which preceded fifteen minutes of fast pace jokes and skits. Cocahico's New Talent Time featured Mr. Lutz and the Faculty Band. Because of their surprising versatility, the teachers' version of "If I hadn't been in F.T.A." gained a standing ovation from the students. The wet finale featured Calvin and Chris Sweigart's "Sock it to me time," and Mr. Lutz closed the program with "Very Interesting - but mathematically unsound!"

After months of waiting, the sophomore class received their jackets on November 6th. Along with Mrs. Ostapuk and Mr. Mooney, Mr. Pfeiffer and Mr. Duck helped to distribute the jackets. The sophomores tried them on and examined them very carefully. Some students wore their jackets to classes for the rest of the day.

D. Martin

With the help of their new class advisor, Mr. Mentzer, the sophomores chose a yellow tipped rose for their class flower. The students also selected their class motto, "We'll find a way or make one."

Advised by Mr. Kokat and assisted by Randy Palsgrove, the club feels no need for officers nor a formal meeting so they devote their entire club period for working on their projects. The girls make wooden dishes, jewelry boxes, centerpieces, and pins. The great response of the first year club required Mr. Kokat to divide the club into two groups which meet on both chapter and school club days.

S. White, B. Ansel, M. Gensemer, G. Glass, B. Wagner, and L. Youndt.

With the aid of her skill and experience, Mrs. Doherty teaches the CHEF CLUB the ancient art of cooking. The club not only prepares tantalizing deserts, but they also learn the exact timing required for serving a complete meal. The club is in the capable hands of Richard Good, president. He is assisted by Bruce Wagner, vice-president, and Larry Youndt, treasurer. A trip to the butcher shop on November 13 highlighted the year.

Cocalico's F.H.A. is an active club consisting of thirteen members. Each year the club attends the F.H.A. Round Up and visits the Harrisburg Farm Show. To raise money for two of the girls to attend the F.H.A. convention in Philadelphia, the club sells cookbooks and homemade fudge. The Future Homemakers also bake cookies for West's Nursing Home.

Yearbook members not only spend long hours working on the yearbook during the school year but also complete the advertising section during the summer months. At the beginning of the school year, all staff members participated in the sales campaign for the 1969 Ko-Ka-Le-Ko. By May, ninety percent of the yearbook had been completed and sent to the publishing company.

BLITHE SPIRIT by Noel Coward concerns the inept attempts of Charles Condomine (Jay Althouse) to expose those who dabble in the occult for what they really are. Charles, his wife Ruth (Jane Fichtorn), and some friends become involved in a seance ably managed by one Madame Arcati (Roxann Showalter) and her invisible medium Daphne. Unfortunately things get out of hand. What initially promised to be a lighthearted romp turns into a near-catastrophe when the over zealous seer produces the blithe spirit of Charles' dead wife Elvira (Peggy Carr and Linda Sweigart).

With two wives to contend with, Charles finds life increasingly unbearable. Matters are further complicated by Ruth's inability to see or hear the quick-witted Elvira, furthermore, the living wife is thoroughly convinced that her husband has reached the last outpost of sanity and will soon end up in the London Psychical Research Department's vegetable garden. When several vain attempts by Charles' erstwhile colleague in the mysterious arts lead nowhere, Elvira resolves the issue by unintentionally taking the life of the second Mrs. Condomine.

Before her body has a chance to cool, Ruth returns to the somewhat less than loving arms of her husband. Now faced with the possibility of spending the rest of his life with the spirit forms of both wives, Charles once again seeks assistance from Madame Arcati. In spite of her resemblance to the cackling weird sisters in MACBETH, the egotistical spiritualist conjures up all the "tricks of the trade" she can think of. The Madame's cloudy crystal ball informs her that a white bandage is an integral part in finding who summoned the wives back. When Edith (Glenda Sweigart) appears with her head wrapped, Madame Arcati uses the befuddled maid to force the withdrawal of both the first and the second Mrs. Condomine. The scheme meets with partial success in that the wives are no longer visible.

Sue, a nice girl &
met when my sister
use to take dancing
seasons at Ephrata.
Remember all the great
fun at the Denver pool.
Keep your nice smile and
great personality and you surely will have sweethearts.

Remember all the fun
we had of summer "20", up at the great one and only Ko-Ku-16-Ko Swim pool.

Forget it

Tell you later

Susie, To a nice
girl and good cheerleader, Always remember the fun we had. Remember the last pool dance at Ephrata
when Andy did not feel good and your brother picked us up after the dance.
Stay in your school as you are and as smart in I used to have fun. Never forget how Mike and I like it was before. Good Luck and it will be like your future attempts. Excuse the success in your writing but I was writing this in study hall.
Keep smiling and success will be yours.
Sometime remember me.

Sue
is a real nice girl I met
while swimming on
the Adamstown swim team.
Keep that real nice smile
and wonderful personality.
Good luck in future

Sue,
To a real
nice girl I met in 7th grade. Keep up
all your good work
and school spirit. I wish the best of luck to
you always. AFA

Sue!
To a great
girl who I met in 7th grade. Keep up your good work
and school spirit. I
wish the best of luck to
you always. AFA

To a real swell girl whom
I've known since first grade.
Keep the great personality you've always had and you'll never go wrong. Sorry that I couldn't think of anything different or amusing to write
but if I should die, that would break you up to read it.

Sue To a cute girl
and a good cheerleader.
Remember the positive and the times we spent out with the kids
in our good old block.

Sue
To a nice girl
and cheerleader I knew
from 10th grade and out before. Good luck.

Sue
To a real
great girl I met
down at the old Denver pool and got to know all the great
sections in 6th grade
like G-1, G-2, G-3, G-4, G-5, G-6, G-7, G-8, G-9, G-10, G-11, G-12.
Keep up the great cheering!
